Reformers still preach against modern beach wear, even though there's not enough left to talk about.

NOTE FROM SHOW AND JUDGING RULES COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

The functions of a committee are to investigate our needs, consider the suggestions offered, and to report recommendations to the membership for their consideration.

From correspondence and conversation with members there is evidence that many feel improvements could and should be made in our Show and Judging Rules.

Your committee needs your suggestions as to which parts of the rules need revising. All suggestions should be accompanied by specific recommendations for these revisions.

Please send your recommendations to me, and I assure you the committee will consider all angles of each one, so that a report can be made to the membership.

My sincere thanks to the chapters that have submitted to me the two sets of questions for examining applicants for junior and senior judges.
